

Children's Art Exhibit Winners

The Garden City Historical Society's third annual Children Art Exhibit, "Architecture of Garden City," was on display Saturday, April 12 and 13 at The Garden City Historical Society Museum, 109 Eleventh Street. The artwork drawn and photographed by Garden City students in grades kindergarten through 12 depicted an architectural feature of a residential or non-residential structure located in the Village.

The Society congratulates its winners — Senior High: Steven Lanciotti, Andrew Kuruc and Laura LoTurco (Photography) and Olivia Segarra, Jenna Krug and Laura Pashayan (Drawing); Middle School: Jacquelyn Seskin, Kylie Mara and Matthew Conway; 2nd-5th Grade: Isabel Balady, Evelyn Chavez, Shannon Tierney and Jack Cashwell; Kindergarten-1st Grade: Stephen Debany, Rebecca Curran and Amanda Hohenberger.

The Society is selling notepads that feature each of the individual winning drawings. Please stop by the A.T. Stewart Exchange (rear entrance of the Museum at 109 Eleventh Street) to purchase these pads for convenient individual and household use...and as a reminder of the winning artwork in our latest contest. A portion of the proceeds of each sale goes to The Garden City Historical Society to further its programs within the community.
